Membership to Drama Queensland provides:

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: Access to a variety of workshops, seminars and conferences designed to meet the needs of drama educators.

E-NEWSLETTERS: Quarterly e-newsletters sent to your nominated email address with current information on drama teaching including book and theatre reviews, syllabus trends, curriculum updates and committee reports.

E-BULLETINS: Monthly e-bulletins sent to your nominated email address with up-to-date information on industry, curriculum and employment news.

DRAMA QUEENSLAND JOURNAL: Two Copies of the Drama Queensland Journal – Drama Queensland Says - full of practical teaching ideas, resource materials, and research.

DRAMA QUEENSLAND WEBSITE: www.dramaqueensland.org.au Keep up with the latest Drama Queensland news and members only access to great resources for drama teachers.

DRAMA QUEENSLAND E-GROUP: This email facility enables you to correspond with many other Drama Queensland members, seek advice on drama education and generally share ideas and dialogue. It is a great way to keep in contact with other Drama Queensland members especially if you are in a remote part of Queensland or are the only drama teacher in your school. Become members of this group by sending an email to drama_queensland-subscribe@yahoo.com with no subject or message. If you are a financial member you will receive a message to welcome you into the group and guidance on how to become involved.

ADVOCACY: Drama Queensland makes regular representations and submissions to government departments and cultural organizations, including the Arts Alliance to advocate for the place of drama in education.

DRAMA CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT: Drama Queensland has been involved in the writing of the drama component of the Arts 1 to 10 syllabuses. In consultation with its members, the Drama Queensland Committee is aiming to continue its involvement in the implementation of this important project.

MEMBERSHIP AND LINKS TO INTERNATIONAL AND NATIONAL DRAMA IN EDUCATION

ORGANISATIONS: Drama Queensland members are automatically affiliated with the International and National drama and arts organisations, IDEA, DRAMA AUSTRALIA and NAAE (see below). Drama Queensland members can receive national and international perspectives through two Drama Australia research journals

1. ADEM, a magazine of current classroom practices.
2. NJ, the latest national and international trends in drama teaching and research. (By subscription).

Drama Australia newsletters are available online on: <http://www.dramaaustralia.org.au>

- International Drama and Education Association (IDEA) now has a membership of over 40 countries.
- The Australian parent body to Drama Queensland is Drama Australia, the National Association of Drama Education.
- Drama Australia is also an affiliate of the National Affiliation of Arts Educators (NAAE).
