DRAMA QUEENSLAND E-GROUP: This email facility enables you to correspond with many other Drama Queensland members, seek advice on drama education and generally share ideas and dialogue. It is a great way to keep in contact with other Drama Queensland members especially if you are in a remote part of Queensland or are the only drama teacher in your school. If you are a financial member you will receive a message to invite you into the group and guidance on how to become involved. You will need to sign up to Yahoo to access the egroup.

ADVOCACY: Drama Queensland makes regular representations and submissions to government departments and cultural organizations, including the QAAE to advocate for the place of drama and The Arts in education.

DRAMA CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT: Drama Queensland has been involved in responding to and advocating for the recent changes to both the Australian Curriculum and the Senior Syllabus.

MEMBERSHIP AND LINKS TO INTERNATIONAL AND NATIONAL DRAMA IN EDUCATION ORGANISATIONS:

Drama Queensland members are automatically affiliated with the International and National drama and arts organisations, IDEA, DRAMA AUSTRALIA and NAAE (see below). Drama Queensland members can receive national and international perspectives through NJ-

1. NJ, the latest national and international trends in drama teaching and research. (By subscription).
- International Drama and Education Association (IDEA) now has a membership of over 40 countries.
  - The Australian parent body to Drama Queensland is Drama Australia, the National Association of Drama Education.
  - Drama Australia is also an affiliate of the National Affiliation of Arts Educators (NAAE).
